REPBLICIAN PARTY IS COMING BACK

SENATOR WM. E. BORAH SAYS PROOF OF STATEMENT IS ON EVERY HAND.

AMALGAMATION OF VOTERS

Says That the Facts and Figures Show That Reunion Can Not Be Doubted.

(Asscoiated Press).

Detriot, Mick., May 26.—A glowing picture of the Repbuican party, re-united with the Progeressive element which left it in 1912, was painted here today by Senator William E. Borah, speaking at a statewide "conference" of republicans.

"The Republican party," said the Senator, "is coming back into power. The proof of it is on every hand The trend is unmistakable. I said said a year ago that the amalgamation which would take place would be an amalgamation of the voters, not the assumed leaders. I said furthermore that that was the only amalgamation that was worth while. The men who voted the third party ticket to the number of four million, for reasons entirely satisfactory to them, can neither be questioned as to their integrity of purpose or their patriotism. But that it was a protest and not a manifestation of purpose, is now established by facts party, is now established by facts and figuers that cannot be doubted.

"Now in view of this pronounced and unmistakable purpose of those who voted the third party ticket to ally themselves with the Republican party, in view of the determination to support its principles, and its policies, what is the task before us? It is unquestionably to make our party equal to the tremendous problems which now concern us. It is to build up in this country, out of the traditions, the achievements and prestige of the past, the duties and obligations of the present, and the hopes and aspirations of the future, an organization efficient, militant and progressive—worthy of its old days and equal to the obligations that now rest upon us. It is our duty in other words, in unmistakable terms to make it clear that the Republican party is to be as it was in its best days, a thoroughly progressive party. We ought not to assume for a moment or concede for a moment, that because the party bids fair to go back into power, there is going to be any compromise with the forces which brought it near ruin. There is in this country a powerful influence for the bad in politics and it will take possession of any party i nthe world, if it can, which is enjoying power. This kind of an influence does not fight a party i nthe open. It holds itself in readiness to direct the course of any party which happens to be i npower. With such infuences there can be no compromise if we are going to have a party which is going to meeet and solve the great problems which a new industrial life and a new social condition have imposed upon us.

"No man living in this splendid age ,amid these exhilirating environments can afford to permit the corroding poison of pessimism to enter his soul. But on the other hand, the curse of the age is that cold, cruel, selfish conservatism, which, living in its ease and comfort, enjoying wealth and all that it brings, refuses to see or sympathize with the conditios of those, who in the midst of a world of plenty, are bordering on the line of hunger and misery, who refuse to see the new conditions of the new problems which must be met and dealt with in the same the spirit and with the same courage and progressiveness that our fathers met the problems of their age. The great and almost superhuman task, my friends is not the gathering of wealth, but its fair and equitable distribution.

"What we want in this country is a party which will do the simple but profound thing which Lincoln did, that is, gather up the common sense, the common honesty, the common patriotism, the common courage and the common righteousness of the common people of this country, organize it into a militant, progressive froce, diciplined force for legal and social justice, and do it all under the constitution and laws of this blessed old republic."

PLAN TO COMPEL REBELS TO SUBMIT

AGREEMENT FOR A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT IN MEXICO IS REPORTED.

CARRANZA MEN ARE BARRED

General Huerta May Retire and Successor Be Installed Before Villa and Constitutionalists Take the Capital of Mexico.

Niagara Fall., Ont., May 26.—Much progress has been made in the mediation negotiations within the last 24 hours and gives substantial grounds for the belief that an agreement between the American and the Mexican delegates will be reported by the end of this week.

This agreement will provide not only for an adjustment of the quarrel between the Huerta administration and the United States, but will contain a declaration on the land question and provide for the organization of a provisional government for Mexico to succeed that of President Huerta, who will voluntarily retire from office.

The persons to compose the provisional government will be named in the agreement.

Washington Now Bars Rebels.

One important development of this 24-hour period was that notice has been served on the constitutionalists by the Washington government that if they send a representative to the mediation conference he will not be received. The evident intention is for the United States and the Mexican delegates to enter into an agreement to bring peace to Mexico and ask the constitutionalists to conform to its conditions.

It appeared from hints given out that the peace conference was trying to establish a provisional government in the place of Huerta's before the constitutionalists could capture Mexico City and attempt to setup their own.

The three South Americans made it plain that while every aspect of the Mexican situation, both internal and international, had been laid before the delegates from the United States and Mexico, no formal basis had been reached for the treatment in any specified order of the issues involved.

It is the hope of the Huerta delegates that a new provisional government will be set up in the Mexican capital which the United States will promptly recognize.

With a new government established in Mexico City, the Mexican delegates believe the constitutionalists would be compelled to accept it. If they refused the constituted government duly recognized and able therefore to get ammunition, would crush revolutions quickly.

Hold Carranza Needs Aid.

Washington, May 26.—Satisfactory reports from the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls increased the hopes of the Washington government that international warfare can be averted and peace brought to Mexico.

Denials were given in official quarters to reports that General Carranza had flatly refused to consider any form of mediation proposals. It was said many constitutionalists believed that if Villa captured Mexico City there would be need for the good offices of the mediators before a constitutional government could be established.

The Washington government decided to make no protest over the firing on naval aeroplanes near Vera Cruz. On the contrary, it announced that no more American aeroplanes would sail across the Mexican army lines while the armistice is in force.

Three Armies Beset Huerta.

San Antonio, Tex., May 26.—The landing of 3,000 constitutionalists on the coast of the Mexican state of Vera Cruz is the beginning of a triple movement against Mexico City, says Albert Carrillo, constitutionalist consul. The Vera Cruz force includes 3,000 men headed by Gen. Candido Aguilar, taker from the command with which General Gonzales captured Tampico.

FREEPORT YOUNG MAN SHOOTS BRIDE-TO-BE

CARELESS HANDLING OF REVOLVER RESULTS IN TRAGIC DEATH OF GIRL.

"DID'NT KNOW IT WAS LOADED"

Was Waving Gun and Snapping Trigger—Exploded and Girl Fell Dead With Bullet Through Brain.

The careless handling of a 32 calibre revolver by Fred Phillips of Freeport was the cause of the death of his sweetheart, Miss Dorothy Phillips, 16 years old, no relation to him. The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Phillips, residing in the Organ Factory addition to Freeport, and the boy, who was from the east, had been making his home with the Phillips family for several weeks. He was a laborer and had lived in Freeport for some time, during which he had fallen in love with the little Phillips girl who had reciprocated, and the young couple had many times talked of their marriage day.

The young man had the revolver in his hand; he had found it in a room upstairs, and after looking at it and seeing no bullets, decided it was not loaded. He had been looking for his cuff buttons when he ran across the gun (the girl had been washing some clothes for him), and being unable to find them, playfully waved the gun around in the air and ordered the girl to look them up. Believing the gun to be unloaded he snapped the trigger, and continued to snap it. The fifth time he pulled the trigger, all the while waving the gun aimlessly, there was an explosion and Dorothy, who had just stepped in at the door, uttered a scream and sunk to her knees and then fell on her face. She had a bullet in her brain, having entered through the middle of the right temple.

The youth was terror-stricken and nearly lost his reason while he fastened his arms around the lifeless form and begged the little sweetheart to speak to him. He was taken into custody by the police but released when the inquest showed his innocence of intentional crime.

AUTO MEETS GRIEF ON STERLING-DIXON ROAD

Sterling, May 26.—George Young, of Shabbona, while driving on the Dixon road to Dixon Sunday evening lost control of his car, the car running down the grade, striking an electric light pole and plunged onto the tracks of the S. D. & E., traction line. When the car struck the pole it threw the four occupants from it, very fortunately all escaped injury, with the exception of Mrs. Young ,who received but slight injuries.

Werneke Gets Car.

E. L. Werneke was notified and hurried to the scene and pulled the car off the tracks and towed it to town. The car, in spite of the crash with the lectric pole, was not so badly damaged. The front axel was broken and a spring damaged. Mr. Werneke has a force of men at work on the car.

Attracts Many Cars.

The wreck attracted many cars, and within twenty minutes after it occurred a score or more of autos were lined up on either side of the highway. The occupants of the car wer Mr. and Mrs. Young, Rodney Sides and Bryan Roherer. Mrs. Young was taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Moyer of Rock Falls. Mr. Young is a brakeman on a Shabbona passenger train and is well known here. That no one was injured is remarkable. The accident was due to Mr. Young attempting to get away from a motorcycle, which was not carrying a light. In doing so, he turned over the grade, into the pole, smashing the pole and plunging into the street car track.

IS HOLDING HER OWN.

Mrs. Roy Bridges, who submitted to an operation at the hospital Sunday, is reported to be resting as easily as could be expected.

ELGIN CLUB HAS A VERY UNIQUE PLAN

WILL GROUP "MOVIES" OF EDUCATIONAL WORTH ON CERTAIN NIGHTS FOR YOUNG

THE "PARENT-TEACHERS" ASSN.

Movement May Be Started in Dixon To Secure Certain Kinds of Pictures on Particular Nights.

In an effort to elevate standards of moving pictures in Elgin with the purpose of showing before the school children a regular line of pictures of educationl value the "parent-teacher" association of the Franklin School of that city has started a movement in which all the clubs of Elgin expect to participate

A plan will be paced before the various owners of local theaters suggesting that one day in the week be set apart especially for exhibitions of pictures that can be approved by the parents and teachers. There are many films of great educational value as it is, but there is no regular time for them. If the right kind of views can be grouped once a week it is thought the object aimed at will be secured.

It is said this movement will have strong support in Elgin schools and churches and that it will add much patronage to the business of the theaters.

The parent-teacher associations in other towns have to some extent adopted this plan and are likely to do so here.

It is thought that the owners of moving picture shows will be only too glad to fall in with the movement and on special days supply views of travel, industrial pictures and illustrations from the best literature.

This movement which is being so ably advocated by the Elgin people is only one of the many that the "Parent Teachers Associations" in different sections of the state are furthering the movement of parent Association is a new idea founded on the fact and taking for its prime object the enabling of the influence of the home to co-operate as fully as possible with the requirements of a pupils life in the school room.

These conditions are efficiently reached through meetings between the parents and the teachers to discuss all problems in which they are vitally and jointly interested.

L. E. EDWARDS GETS VERDICT FOR DAMAGES

The verdict returned by the jury in the Whiteside county court yesterday in the case of L. E. Edwards vs. Bogott was in favor of the plaintiff, granting him $500 damages.

The suit arose out of an accident which occurred Nov. 23, 1912, when Bogott ran over the son of Mr. Edwards on this city on East Chamberlain street, breaking his leg. The difficulty arose out of the fact that the lad seemingly dodged directly in the path of the machine which, however, was on the wrong side of the street.

H. C. Warner was the attorney for Mr. Edwards.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF "COKE" IN DIXON

BELIEVE HE INTENDED TO SELL IT

Someone Took Cocaine From Tillson and Rowland Drug Stores This Morning.

A young fellow, who gave his name to the police as Harry West, residence LaGrange, was arrested by Special Officer Peter Duffy near the Chicago & Northwestern passenger station this morning and is now being held to answer to the charge of stealing cocaine from the Tillson and Rowland drug stores during the early morning. When arrested West had some of the drug in his possession, and during close questioning by Officer Winters admitted having stolen it.

Early this morning at the drug stores reported to the police that quantities of cocaine had been stolen from their places of business and the employes at the Rowland store furnished the clue that resulted in the arrest of West. They reported that while at work in the front of the store they had heard a noise among the bottles back of the prescription case, at the rear of the store. As they started back to investigate a stranger who has been identified as West, walked from the rear and presented a prescription, which has proven to be of his own writing. Soon after he left the discovery was made that the cocaine had been taken, the police were notified and West's arrest followed. In all probability the theft of the drug at the Tillson store was accomplished by making entrance through the rear door while the clerks were at work in front.

May Sell Drug.

It is the belief of the police that West has been in the practice of stealing the drug and selling it to friends, as its sale is prohibited by law except on the prescription of a physician. When arrested a number of safety razors were found in his possession and it is believed he store them also. He will be arraigned either late this afternoon or tomorrow. He claimed, when arrested, to be a painter and to be on his way to Nelson to secure work.

Gets Thirty Days.

West was arraigned before Justice Grover Gehant this afternoon on the charge of vagrancy and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

MEDIATION NEARS A MUTUAL AGREEMENT

(Associated Press.)

Niagara Falls, Can., May 26—The Mexican delegates have concluded to issue no pronunciamento on the land question, saying they believed it to be indiscreet.

The American delegates hurried to the room of the South American mediators and held a prolonged conversation, after which Lamar said, "We have begun to discuss the terms and details of plans for pacification. On a number of them we are in substantial agreement, but there has been no disagreement."

One of the Mexican delegates said: "We will not let the agrarian question disrupt the mediation proceedings. I think there is a way of coming to common accord on this and other points and so we will be able to complete our work shortly."

JACOB A. RIIS DIED AFTER LONG ILLNESS

AUTHOR AND SLUM WORKER

Wrote Many Famous Books and Also Spent Many Years as Reporter On New York Papers.

(Associated Press.)

Barre, Mass., May 26—Jacob A. Riis, author and social worker, died here today. He became through work in behalf of the poorer people of New York "the most useful citizen" of the metropolis, according to a tribute paid him by Theodore Roosevelt, his intimate friend.

An almost penniless immigrant, he obtained knowledge of the slums first hand and found conditions there so repellant that he consecrated his life to a war against wretchedness.

Riis was the 13th child of a Latin teacher in Ribe, Jutland, Denmark. He was born in 1849. Protesting at the literary career his father had cut out for him, he decided to work with his hands and became a carpenter's apprentice. This however did not prevent him from falling in love with Elizabeth Nielson, daughter of one of the richest men in his native town. But she refused him and when he was 21 years old, having learned his trade he embarked for New York with only $40 in his pocket. He spent half the sum for a heavy navy pistol as soon as he landed to "fight Indians and desperadoes."

Riis led a varied career during the next six years. He built miners' huts in a Pennsylvania construction camp, mined coal, made bricks, drove team and peddled flat irons and books. At 27 he spent his last cent in reaching New York, hoping to enlist through the French consul in the French army against Germany for the Franco-Prussian war, but his services were refused and Riis was forced to accept a beginner's place as a reporter for a New York news bureau. At the very first he made his most conspicuous success in the study of conditions on the East Side of New York.

With only $75 capital and notes for $575, he succeeded in buying the South Brooklyn News, which was on the verge of bankruptcy, and made it such a success that he was able to sell at a considerable profit a few years later. He returned to Denmark and married the girl who had refused him when he was a carpenter's apprentice. This first wife died in 1905 and two years later he married Mary Phillips of St. Louis.

As a reporter on the New York Tribune and later on the New York Sun he took up real work in slum fighting. While attending to routine duty as a police reporter he worked day and night to arouse the people to the need of improved living conditions. One of his first campaigns was against the impure city water and it was his fight which finally led to the purchase of the Croton water-shed to assure safe drinking water for New York.

He brought sunlight to the tenement districts by forcing the destruction of rear tenements. He cleared Mulberry Bend, one of the worst tenement sections of the city, and replaced the squalid homes with fine shady parks.

Theodore Roosevelt was police commissioner of New York when Riis attacked the evils of the police station lodging houses. He won his point and incidentally a strong ally in Roosevelt. Riis drove bake shops out of tenement basements; he fought the laws for abolishing child labor, and was instrumental in getting the passage of the "briefest, wisest and best statute on the books of New York, laying down the principle that hereafter no school shall be built without an adequate playground."

After 27 years as a reporter Riis resigned to continue his fight by lecturing and writing. Among the products of his pen are "How the Other Half Lives," "The Children of the Poor," "The Making of an American" (his autobiography), "The Battle With the Slum," "Children of the Tenements," "The Old Town," "Theodore Roosevelt, the Citizen," and "Hero Tales from the Far North."

SUICIDES AFTER HIS SWEETHEARTH'S DEATH

BLAMES SELF FOR GIRLS DEATH

Note Says He Tried to Kiss Florence Bently and In The Struggle Something Caused Her Death.

(Associated Press.)

Lisle, Ill., May 26—Reginald Barr, of Downers Grove, who was the last person seen with Miss Florence Bently, the Downers Grove girl whose dead body was found in a grove a short way from this village last evening, jumped beneath a moving train here early this morning and was instantly killed.

Barr left a note which declared he was the slayer of Frances Bently, but that it had been an accident. His final and successful attempt at suicide was his fourth attempt, according to the note, since Saturday night when the death of the girl occurred. The letter was in one of his pockets, and it said that he drank drugs twice in an effort to die beside the body of his sweetheart, and then, "I jumped into a quarry pit and lit in the stagnant water and couldn't sink," read the note.

The clothing on his body was still wet when he was taken from the railroad tracks and a bottle found near his body seems to bear out the suicide story.

Tried to Kiss Her.

The note said that Miss Bently was killed while she was struggling to avoid being kissed by Barr. He said that while they were out walking he tried to kiss her and when he did so she screamed and he put his hand over her mouth to stop her from calling for help, and in the struggle they tripped and fell, according to the note and he believed that her neck was broken.

The story of the physicians and the coroner who examined the body, however, do not agree with Barr's story of the cause of death, and they say her neck was not broken.

Barr has been hiding for two days in the woods near Downers Grove, while posses have been combing the countryside for him.

Reginald Barr was twenty-four years old and was employed as a railroad clerk, in Chicago. The girl was about Barr's age and was also employed in Chicago. She was a cloak model. The two had been "pals" for years and had in fact, grown up together and it was expected that they would marry.

May Be Heart Failure.

In the note left by Barr he said "that possibly the girl died of of heart failure or of fright, as I surely would not kill the one I thought the most of in the world."

The post mortum examination did not diclosed any cause for death but it established the fact that there had been nothing sordid in her relation with Barr. A double inquest will be held over the two bodies tomorrow.

Went on Walk.

Barr and the girl started out for a walk Saturday night, as they were in the habit of doing often. When they did not return their families became greatly alarmed and search parties started out. It was thought that they had eloped, until the girl's body was found. A peculiar phase of the mystery was developed when the body of the girl was found in a spot that had been before searched, and there is a belief that it may have been brought there aofter the girl had died.

Barr was seen very late on the night of the girl's death, racing madly along a country road away from town and again the next day in the fields a short distance from town.

MANIFEST INTEREST IN SATURDAY GAME

OPENING OF CITY LEAGUE SEASON WILL ATTRACT MANY TO THE NEW PARK.

STARS WILL MEET BRUNSWICKS

Teams Will Get Together After Three Years of Endeavor Toward a Game.

The Dixon Union high school team will not disband at the close of their season, but will play all through the summer under the club name "Brunswicks."

The new organization will be under the management of John Vaile and will be coached by Joe Vaile, which makes up some combination, a good all-around ball team combined with good coaching and judicious managing at the hands of one well experienced in that line.

The Brunswicks will play their opening game next Saturday, Decoration day, when they will meet the Stars on the new City league diamond.

This game is one to which great interest is attached, being a contest between teams that have been trying to get together for three years. While the game Saturday will not settle the disputes regarding the merits of the two bunches, the result means much for several reasons. First, Dixon's two best pitchers will be opposed to each other for the first time, Ackert for the Brunswicks and Huber for the Stars. Then this is the opening game of the City league, an organization bound to make local baseball history in the games to come during the summer months.

HARD TO BEAT.

Two London thugs observed a big, raw-boned Scotch countryman, evidently paying his first visit to the city. They waylay him in a dark street and demand his money. The Scot immediately put up a terrific battle that lasts more than half an hour. When exhausted, the thugs finally rifle the pockets of the prostrate victim and all they find is a single copper coin.

"Bill, says one, looking at the coin; if e'd 'ad a sixpence, e'd 'av killed us."

ENGAGED.

"What are your views on the question?" asked the reporter.

"I'd like to oblige you," replied the eminent personage, "but if you desire my views, you will have to subscribe to the maginzine to which I am under contract."

GUN POWDER, MAYBE.

"What's the matter now?"

"My wife told me to be sure and home some powder."

"Well, you haven't forgotten."

LOCAL MEN DID NOT RACE.

The Dixon motorcyclists entered in the races at DeKalb Sunday did not compete because of the prizes offered being withdrawn, and while a good racing bill was given, only the members of the DeKalb club raced, merely for the excitement and pleasure of the game.

ELDENA, 10; WALTON, 2.

The Eldena Regulars defeated the Walton Cubs Sunday at Eldena by a score of 10 to 2. The game was called in the seventh inning because of rain. A large crowd was present to witness this, the second game Eldena has copped from Walton this summer.

Lievan and Hale were the battery for Eldena and Dempson and McCaffrey officiated in a like capacity for Walton. Arnold of Dixon umpired.

Score:

Eldena	1 2 2 0 0 2 3—10
Walton	0 1 0 0 0 0 1— 2

THE PRODUCER'S SHARE?

The Indianapolis News calls attention to the fact that the producer receives only a small part of what the consumer pays and illustrates this general rule by quotations from government statistics in reference to milk. These figures show that in 1912, the dariyman received an average price of 3.565 cents for each quart of milk, while the consumer paid 8.5 cents per quart. The difference represented the toll of the midleman. The News says, "there is an 'unspoken' conspiracy ever present to make the consumer pay all the costs and commissions," and calls attention to the movement already under way to increase the retail price of ice. But the News admits the middleman is a necessity, and says:

"Tte whole qeustion comes back to the subject of wholesale terminal markets and improved transportation systems. In a complex civilization, middlemen are necessary. But unfust commissions, delays and other losses can be reduced. Not until energetic efforts are made to improve the marketing and carrying systems will the consumer and producer find price conditions fair.

TELLS STORY TO GRAND JURY

Minister Who Was Kidnaped Recites Adventures.

Danville, Ill., May 26.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont went before the grand jury and related of his kidnaping and of his experiences, which covered a period of nearly eight weeks. Before entering the grand jury room he stated that he would be unable to give the names of any of his captors, but that his description of the automobile which carried him to the vicinity of Columbia, Ill., would be accurate. He will be followed in the grand jury inquiry by Detective Devereaux of a Chicago agency, who has been almost continuously on the case since its beginning.

Cotton Manufacturers in Session.

New York, May 26.—Five hundred delegates, together with members of their families, mill superintendents, factory representatives, supply manufacturers and salesmen, in all about 2,000 persons, gathered here today for the annual convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association.

Editor Killed by Train.

South Bend, Ind., May 26.—Clyde Guy of Granger, aged thirty-six years, was killed there when a train struck his buggy. Guy was formerly editor of a Socialist paper in Mishawaka.

A street in Lyons—the Rue de la Republique—is paved with glass. The blocks are eight inches square and so closely fitted that water cannot pass between the interstices.

To compete with Calcutta's present street railway system a company has been formed which will place a hundred motor busses and four hundred cars for freight in service within a year.

The czar of Russia probably owns a greater quantity of china than any other person in the world. He has the china belonging to all the Russian rulers as far back as Catherine the Great. It is stored in the Winter palace at St. Petersburg.

Work on an $8,000,000 skyscraper in New York City has been halted and probably will be stopped until the proprietor of a small quick lunch counter chooses to vacate. He refused to leave, has been sustained by the courts and may stay until his lease expires in May 1918.

"A BADGE OF COWARDICE

Under a heading, "Badge of Cowardice and • Mruder," the Chicago Record-Herald has the following editorial coment on the habit of carrying concealed weapons:

"Two hundred and eighty-five persons were killed by firearms in Chicago last year. There are causes and causes, but as Judge Kavanaugh indicates, the common cause that keeps adding to the bad record is that fearful habit of carrying concealed weapons, which is an American triat. The judge is dead right about this, and he should be thanked for the declaration that cowards, criminals and police officials carry concealed weapons." In the first class are many persons who delight to imagine that the evidence of cowardice is an evidence of bravery. They revel in the feeling of protentious importance as the tote a gun. They are so careful to have the gun ready for emergencies that there is a very large per centage of homicides committed, not by criminals, but by the armed cowards who are wholy unfit to be trusted with deadly weapons. Men not in the coward class have traveled the streets of this city at hours of the day and night for the last thirty years without ever feeling the need of a gun. They find that they sufficiently protected by tending to their own business, keeping out of saloon brawls and leaving the armed cowards to flock together for their own destruction."

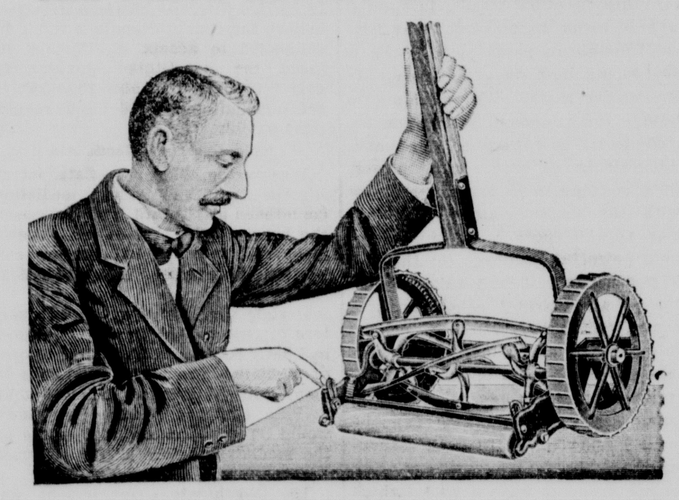
THE DIXON ROTARY LAWN MOWER



"DIXON"

THE LIGHT RUNNING, HEAVY DUTY LAWN MOWER.

Guaranteed Equal to the Best Made.

Made in Dixon. Boost! It is Dixon. Every lawn in Dixon should have a mower on it. Your dealer should have them. If he has not got them call us and we will supply you.

We wish to draw your attention to a few of the improvements in the Dixon Lawn Mower over all other makes.

First, to the floating bed knife bar which is swiveled on the rod that ties the back end of the mower securely together, and, with the other tie rod at the front makes the most rigid frame to be found in lawn mowers.

You will notice at each back corner of the bed knife a compression spring. These press the cutting edge of the bed knife up against the reel, or revolving knife, always adjusting itself.

We make the Dixon with a thrust ball bearing which is the same as is used in automobiles, making it the best.

The Dixon Mower will cut heavy grass without raising the handle and without lifting up behind and choking.

SULPHUR IS THE ONLY THING FOR ITCHING ECZEMA

USE LIKE COLD CREAM TO SUBDUE IRRITATION AND CLEAR THE SKIN.

In the treatment of various forms of disfiguring, itching and burning Eczema such as Acne, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, there is nothing known that can take the place of bold-sulphur cream.

For years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties. Bold-sulphur is not only parasiticidal, but antipruritic and antiseptic, therefore invaluable in overcoming irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance it instantly stops the agonizing itching, subdues the irritation and heals the inflamed, raw skin right up and it is often years later before any Eczema eruption again appears.

Those troubled should obtain from any good pharmacist an ounce of bold sulphur cream and apply it directly upon the abrasion like an ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome.

Beautiful, Soft, Fluffy Hair An Aid to Beauty

Who does not love a head of pretty hair? Some women think it is a gift of nature and envy their more fortunate sisters. If your hair is not fluffy, soft and lustrous; is falling out, streaked, faded, brittle, or full of dandruff and if the scalp itches, do not think it must be always that way, for pretty hair is only a matter of care and proper nourishment of the hair roots. Hair is something like a plant—if neglected it soon withers and dies, while with a little attention it keeps fresh and beautiful.

Parisian Sage is a scientific preparation that supplies just the elements needed to invigorate the hair roots and stimulate the hair to grow long, thick, fluffy, soft and lustrous. It removes dandruff with one application and quickly stops itching head and falling hair. Rowland Bros. or any druggist can supply you with Parisian Sage—it is inexpensive. You cannot be disappointed with this delightful and helpful hair tonic for the first few days' use will give the hair the beauty and charm of youth.

GIVING TO THE HOSPITAL.

He that has more than he needs, should give. He should give, not only because of the help he may bring to someone less fortunate, but if you choose to look at it in such a selfish way, for the good it will do the giver. Don't you know that you get as much real benefit, oftentimes, from giving something as if you were the recipient? "It is more blessed to give than to receive" is a solemn truth.

However, you do not get the full portion of satisfaction from giving where you are not fairly sure the gift is appreciated and will do some good. Therefore, to realize the biggest dividends from giving, choose a place for your gifts where you know they will help the most.

Once in a while you hear someone say in Dixon, when the subject of a donation to Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital is brought up, "Why, that hospital is rich. It owns land and ha shad much money left to it." That person should be put on the hospital board and have a chance to see what wealth and affluence the institution is, figuratively, rolling in. He would speedily change his mind and be willing to leave to the women who are now running the business of the hospital the job of making both ends meet. And, by the way, they are performing an admirable job of it.

And what if the hospital were as rich as some allege it to be? We wish it could be true, for where on earth is money and lots of it more needed to bestow mercy on mankind?

If you have ever been really ill, or if you have ever had one dear to you hovering terribly close to death's door and you could see the wonders wrought by hospital treatment, modern science and appliances, then you will realize the invaluable virtues of a public hospital; you will have a better understanding of the wonderful, merciful, inestimable benefits to be derived. Every room in the old part of the hospital has saved lives. They have saved the lives of suffering mothers, sick little children and torn and broken men. What is that worth? How are we to say that the hospital has enough money? If we can add more rooms and buy more efficient equipment are we to quibble over the price? What is the price of a life, anyway? Suppose you are to figure that it will be the price of your mother, your wife or your little kiddie. What will it be worth to you then, Mr. Man, to have a room for your dear one and every instrument and knowledge of science to save your treasure to you? It will be a little late to make the investment when sickness swoops down.

GIDDY YOUNG NATIONS.

The United States is sometimes likened to a growing lad, explosive, anarchistic, wayward; while European nations are usually thought of as matured, sedate, wise men who are never given to gaucherie, doing always the artistic, appropriate thing.

Collier's get some pleasure out of discovering just the opposite characteristic among some European peoples. It thinks of them as "those giddy young nations," awarding the palm of dignity and maturity to America. it says:

In Great Britain a hundred thousand Ulstermen are parading with firearms which are liable to go off at any time with shocking results, while the Unionist party leaders and newspaper men are egging them on and gleefully prophesying that the rebellion will ruin the Liberal party.

In France the wife of a cabinet minister has assassinated the editor of a leading newspaper of the opposition whose political arguments consisted of exposing the minister's affairs with women. The trial of the murderess promises to be the social and political event of a decade and will have more effect upon the elections than ten thousand stump speeches.

In Germany the emperor, who has to keep the reichstag good-humored, is taking a firm stand against the ventilation of private citizens by army officers, and insists that said officers be reprimanded, or even spatted on the hand if necessary, while the crown prince, who is answerable to nothing but the laws of heredity, is giving three cheers by telegram every time an officer wipes his sword on the constitution.

We have a few political troubles in this country now and then, but being a stable government and conservative in the extreme in our political methods, these foreign outbreaks naturally amaze and interest us. Still we used these methods, too, about a century ago when volunteer armies opposed the whisky tax; when Aaron Burr practiced statesmanship with a dueling pistol, and when any politician who didn't like a bill in congress could go around and get South Carolina to threaten to secede if it was passed. So we cannot afford to be too scornful of these younger popular governments. They will achieve dignity in time.

THE EMPTY GUN AGAIN.

Up in Freeport Sunday a young man shot his sweetheart. He had found a revolver, looked at it and thought it unloaded, and started snapping the hammer. The fifth time he did it there was a loud report and his sweetheart went tumbling in a heap, dead. He would have given his life to undo what he had done. He can go through a long life filled with tragic memories now, knowing that the act of his stupid, fool self was responsible for the wreck of his dreams and the life of a sweet little girl.

FIFTY YEARS WITHOUT A STIPEND

Chicago, Ill., May 26.—During his fifty years' pastorship of North Bow Congregational church, the Rev. E. Schnadhorst, whose death at the age of eigthy-three years, is announced, did not draw a penny stipend. He was enabled to devote his time to Bow in consequence of certain chemical discoveries of a practical nature.

He began work on a small mission room, when Bow was a village with less than 100 houses. He built the prent chapel and was minister there until his retirement in September 1907.

Fletcherism

BY WALT MASON

I read a screed by Brother Fletcher, on how we ought to chew our grub; I said, "It's sensible, you betcher! I'll emulate that thoughtful dub. No more like some old anaconda, I'll swallow all my victuals whole; I'll eat the sort of things I'm fond o' but chew them up with heart and soul." And now I'm always at the table, I have no time to do my chores; the horse is starving in the stable, the weeds are growing out o' doors. My wife says, "Say, you should be doing some work around this slipshod place." I answer her, "I'm busy chewing — canst see the motions of my face? I have no time to hoe the taters, I have no time to mow the lawn; though chewing like ten alligators, I'm still behind, so help me, John! I chew the water I am drinking, I chew the discuit and the bun; I'll have to hire a boy, I'm thinking, to help me get my chewing done. Some day they'll bear me on a stretcher out to the boneyard, where they plant, and send my teeth to Brother Fletcher, to make a necklace for his aunt.

VOTER'S LEAGUE REVIEW OF RECORDS

LEGISLATIVE LEAGUE RECOMMENDS CERTAIN CHANGES AT SPRINGFIELD.

DEVINE DEFENDS HIS ACTIONS

Says That Criticism From the Legislative Voters League Report Is Untrue and Unjust.

The report of the Illinois Legislative Voter's League, just issued, recommends certain changes in legislative system at Springfield, and sizes up the incumbents in the chairs of the House and Senate there, with varied conclusions and recommendations as to their fitness. Among those mentioned appear many who are well known in Dixon and Lee County:

League Suggests Changes.

Recommendations made by the League include the following:

Appointment of not more than twelve or fifteen committees in each house and the adoption of a rule prohibiting any member from holding places on more than two or three committees.

Curbing of the power of the speaker of the house by taking from him the appointment of committees.

Recording of complete stenographic reports of all daily sessions and permanent committee records.

Thirty-fifth District.

(Counties of De Kalb, Lee and Whitside.)

John M. Gray, Senator (Rep.), physician, Morrison, Ill.,—Ending his first term in the Senate, following a single term in the House. A conservative man with high ideals. Cast the only Senate vote against the initiative and referendum proposition.

Alferd N. Abbott, Representative, (Rep.) farmer, Morrison, Ill.,—Ending his fourth term. He was inclined to be conservative on many legislative questions. This characteristic, coupled with his silence on some roll calls, made him appear to be vacillating.

John Devine, Representative, (Dem.) lawyer, Dixon, Ill.—Ending his first term. Capable of better service than he rendered. He lined up with the spoilsmen on civil service reform.

Roy D. Hunt, Representative, (Prog.), foundryman, De Kalb, Ill.—Ending his first term. Clean and conscientious, he made a good voting record.

Representative Devine's Defense.

When his attention was called to the report of the Legislative Voters Legue by an Evening Telegraph reporter, Mr. Devine said: "I voted against every bad measure introduced at the last session, among which were the race track, prize fight and corporation bills. I voted for every constructive measure, opposed the proposed increase of salary for members, and was one of the seventy-seven members that petitioned the speak to bring the antipass bill to roll call in the closing hours of the session, when the passage of the public utilities bill, which abolished passes was in doubt. The Legislative Voters League criticses me for voting against the civil service measure. The civil service law now in force in this state was enacted by a Republican Adminstration to perpetuate itself in office, many who are holding positions under it took no examination and could not pass a satisfactory examination if called upon to take one. Under its protection, incompetents are holding positions. The civil service law enacted and enforce by the Deneen Administration was a farce and I voted to repeal it. Men who voted for notoriously bad measures but voted in favor of the civil service law have the approval of the Legislative Voters League. In other words, it may be said that if man voted for the civil service, he had a good record, but if he voted against it, he had a bad one."

GOES AFTER CAR.

Rudolps Frincke went to Fort Wayne, Ind., today from where he expects to return shortly with the Auburn car belonging to M. E. Rice, proprietor of the Nachusa tavern.

IS IMPROVING.

COLONEL TO MEET PRESIDENT TODAY

Theodore Roosevelt to Visit Capital for Second Time Since 1909.

PARTY RALLY TO FOLLOW

Progressive Leader Will Confer With Congressman at Washington—May Also Meet Republican Chiefs.

Washington, May 26.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt will be received by President Wilson at the White House this afternoon. The president invited the colonel to luncheon with him, but the latter found it impossible to reach Washington in time. He sent word, however, that he would be delighted to call on the president this afternoon.

Colonel Roosevelt's visit to the White House will be his first since 1910 and the second since he left the executive mansion as president. On his former call he did not see President Taft, as the latter was out of the city.

Hope for G. O. P. Indorsement.

A conference of all the Progressive congressmen with Colonel Roosevelt has been arranged through telephone messages between Representative Murdock in New York and Representative Hinebaugh here. The conference will begin at ten o'clock to night at Pregressive headquarters after the colonel's lecture before the National Geographic society.

Party plans are to be talked over, according to Mr. Hinebaugh.

Conference to Be Vital.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 26.—The trip of Colonel Roosevelt to Washington today took on new significance when it became known that the former president would hold an important conference with Progressive leaders there.

Meeting all the Progressive members of congress he expects to obtain first hand information as to the course of events in Washington during the last few months. This conference will determine in a large measure plans to be followed in starting the ball rolling for the fall campaign.

It was said that at this meeting the presidential campaign of 1916 and the candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt on a joint Republican-Progressive ticket would be broached. The latter suggestion was scouted by Colonel Roosevelt. He did not deny specfically, however, that he might meet Republican members of congress in Washington.

MELLEN STORY FALSE?

J. P. Morgan Brands Road Head's Testimony as Untrue.

Shoulders Blame for Removal of Rail Man From Presidency of New Haven Road.

New York, May 26.—J. P. Morgan characterized as untrue the testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former head of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, before the interstate commerce commission in Washington last week, that J. Pierpont Morgan concealed from Mr. Mellen facts regarding the New Haven road which Mr. Mellen should have known.

Mr. Morgan offered to produce before any proper tribunal at any time the records of J. P. Morgan & Co. and the personal records of his father.

Taking full responsibility upon himself for the change in the road's presidency by which Mr. Mellen resigned and gave way to another, Mr. Morgan said it was untrue that his father in any sense took from Mr. Mellen the management of the road or any part of its affairs.

Regarding the absorption of the Boston & Maine by the New Haven, Mr. Morgan said his father deemed it advisable for the public benefit, since it was recognized by others, as well as himself, that changing economic conditions threatened the commercial position of New England.

Mr. Morgan's statement was his first direct reply to Mr. Mellen's Washington testimony, which he examined, he said, from a etenographic report.

MISSOURI RATE CASES BACK

Federal Judge Refers Back Litigation Involving $24,000,000.

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—By an opinion handed down here by Judge A. S. Van Valkenburgh of the United States district court the Missouri rate cases, which John T. Barker, attorney general, brought against railroads in the state asking a refund of $24,000,000 for alleged excessive fares and freight rates, are referred to the state courts for settlement, and the status of these cases becomes the same as when the suits were begun in 1906.

Son of Hungarian Patriot Dies.

Budapest, May 26.—Francis Kossuth, aged seventy-three, son of the great Hungarian patriot, died here.

EICHENBERG RESIGNS Y. M. C. A. POSITION

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR OF LOCAL INSTITUTNION WILL TAKE FINISHING COURSE

Physical Director Norman E. Eichenberg, of the Y. M. C. A., has resigned his position to take effect on June 1, and after that date he will go to Lake Geneva Training School for finishing work, and next season will take up the work in a larger association. Mr. Eichenbehg entered the physical work in the local association before he had completed his high chool work; but in the short time he has developed wonderfully, and with the additional work this summer he will be fully qualified to take charge of the department work in any of the medium sized associations. The local institution is now searching for a man to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation.

ENGAGEMENT OF PRINCE OSCAR ANNOUNCED TODAY—IS FIRST ORGANIC UNION IN YEARS.

Potsdam, Ger., May 26—The engagement of Prince Oscar, aged 26, the fifth son of the Germon Emperor, to Countess Bassewitz Levetzow, who is maid of honor to the Empress, has been announced. This will be the first organic union that has taken place in the Hohelzollern family since 1853. HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The baseball team trimmed DeKalb nicely Saturday. Some contest and the boys hit like demons. Ackert pitched well, holding them to two hits.

The senior class entertained the juniors at Lowell park Friday night with a banquet and dance. They went by boat and left the dock at 4:30. After the banquet all enjoyed a dance in the pavilion. Music was furnished by the Mandolin club.

The swings and benches were occupied all evening. At a late hour all departed, feeling fine.

The botany class were the victims of another hike up the river, on Wednesday.

There will be no more meetings of the literary society this year, to our sorrow.

Only one more week of school and that is examination week. The exams will start this morning and end on Thursday afternoon. After next week a few of the boys will be putting in their ten hours a day somewhere.

Leaman Weld entertained the members of the basketball team Thursday night with a supper at his home. After supper all attended the Family theatre. Mr. Wold proved an excellent entertainer.

Misses Erma Drew and Helen McKinney spent Wednesday night with Miss Rosanna Dement.

The senior class will graduate Friday night, May 29, at the Dixon opera house. The class of '19 is composed of 32 graduates.

We all extend our sympathies to Miss Ross and Miss Young, who will not be with us the coming year.

To Readers of High School Notes.

As editor of the High School Notes I am very sorry to state that there will be no more high school notes this summer on account of there not being any more high school. I believe I have done my best in supplying you the best accounts of what occurred in our school.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

FOR seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right-hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Dixon in 1855 and it came to stay. For 59 years it has been the right-hand of commercial Dixon.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! The merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

My back ached until I thought it would break, I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

A Human Churn

"WHEN the food reaches the stomach it is subjected to a peculiar churning movement by the muscular walls of the stomach"—(See Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, page 45). In the liver, kidneys and skin, the blood is purified of its waste materials—these organs act as human filters, leaving the blood pure and clear—unless liver, digestive tract and kidneys are clogged.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

is a stomach, liver and kidney tonic—by assisting the stomach to assimilate, the liver to filter, the kidneys to act—the poisons are removed, the red blood corpuscles are increased and one feels light, fresh and active instead of logy, dull and heavy. The "Discovery" stimulates the stomach, increases action of heart and arteries and is a most satisfactory alterative in blood-taint of any character. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over forty years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form; or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial box will be mailed you.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PROVISIONS

The Irish home rule bill, which was introduced in the house of commons April 11, 1912, and which passed the house for the third time, will become law whether the house of lords assents or not. It contains the following provisions:

A senate of 40 members and a house of commons of 164 members, of which Ulster is to have 59 and the universites two.

The senate is to be composed of nominated members. In the first instance the imperial executive is to control the nominations with a view to assuring the representation of the minority. The nominations are to be for a fixed term, and as the members retire by rotation the vacancies will be filled by the Irish executive.

There will be no religious bar and the executive will hold office for a fixed term. The authority of the executive is to be co-extensive with the Irish parliament.

The 164 representatives are to be elected by the existing constituencies, but no constituency is to have fewer than 27,000 inhabitants.

The Irish parliament cannot legislate on peace or war, navy, army or any naval or military force, foreign relations, trade outside Ireland, coinage or legal tender.

It cannot make any law either directly or indirectly to establish or endow any religion or prohibit the free exercise thereof, or give a preference, privilege or advantage or impose any disability or disadvantage on account of religious belief or religious or ecclesiastical status, or make any religious belief or religious ceremony a condition of the validity of any marriage.

Temporary restrictions are placed on legislation, on land purchase, old age pensions, national insurance, labor exchanges, royal Irish constabulary, post office and other savings banks and friendly societies.

The Irish constabulary is to be automatically transferred to the Irish government after six years and power given to the Irish parliament to demand the transfer of the old age pensions and insurance act to its control on giving a year's notice to the imperial government.

The Irish pialiament is debarred from altering the home rule bill or the power to appeal to the privy council.

The executive remains invested in the sovereign or in his representative.

Forty-two members still will be sent from Ireland to the house of commons.

The judicial committee of the privy council is to give the final decision as to the constitutional validity of any act passed by the Irish parliament.

The Irish exchequer is to defray the cost of the Irish administration, except for reserved services mentioned above.

The imperial exchequer will pay an annual sum to the Irish exchequer, starting at $2,500,000, and eventually, after six years, becoming a permanent payment of $1,000,000 annually.

The collection of all taxes is to remain in the imperial service, and they will be paid into the imperial exchequer, which is to pay over to the Irish executive an amount equivalent to the expenditure on Irish services at the time of the passing of the act.

The Irish parliament is to have power to reduce or to discontinue the imperial taxes excepting the income tax and the stamp and estate duties. It will also have power to alter the excise duties, but except in the case of beer and spirits it is debarred from adding to the customs duties anything which will give a greater increase than ten per cent.

The lord lieutenant of Ireland is to have the power to veto or suspend any bill on the instruction of the imperial executive.

TITANIC OWNERS WIN CASE

Supreme Court Says Damages Can't Be Collected.

Washington, May 26.—Practically nothing may be recovered by those who lost relatives or baggage in the Titanic disaster, according to a decision made by the Supreme court. The court held that the liability of the Oceanic Steam Navigation company for the $13,000,000 in claims against it as owner of the Titanic is limited by the American limited liability law of 1851 to the value of the salvage recovered and the freight and passage money received on the Titanic's voyage. That amounts in all to about ninety-one thousand dollars. The decision in no way affects suits brought against the owner in other countries. Justice Holmes announced the court's decision. Justice McKenna dissented.

IRELAND WINS HOME RULE

Commons Passes Measure for Third Time by Vote of 351 to 274.

VETO BY LORDS FUTILE

Ulster Receives News of Action in London in Absolute Quiet and No Disorder Is Reported.

London, England, May 26.—By a vote of 351 to 274—a majority of 77—the house of commons on Tuesday passed the home rule bill on the third and final reading. The bill becomes law when King George signs it.

Under the provisions of the parliament act the bill will now become law even if the house of lords rejects or modifies it, the measure having been passed twice previously by the commons in separate sessions.

Elaborate precautions have been taken to preserve peace in Ulster. One thousand armed police have been moved north and General Macready at Belfast has instructed the railway authorities to be ready with troop trains should the civil authorities call for military aid.

At Newry, Colonel Turner, commanding the infantry regiment stationed there, on receipt of urgent orders, sent all the women and children of the regiment to the Curragh camp. It was Brigadier General Gough, in command of the Carragh camp, who refused to take command in Ulster last March and finally received written guarantees from Colonel Seely, the minister of war, which finally resulted in the resignation of the minister.

Quiet at Londonderry.

At Londonderry there were no demonstrations over the passage of the home rule bill. At night the streets were absolutely quiet.

Belfast received the news of the passage of the bill with dead quiet. By 11 p. m. the city was like a churchyard. Dublin was calm. Limerick rejoiced with fireworks and bands. At Cork great enthusiasm was aroused. Bands paraded and the streets were illuminated with torches and blazing barrels. There were no disorders.

"Today's division marks the death after an inglorious history of the 114 years of the union of Pitt and Castlereagh. . . . Its place is to be taken by a new union founded on mutual respect and good will between the two islands."

The passage of the home rule bill brought to a sudden end the hard-fought struggle. The unionists refused to debate the bill without further information as to the government's intentions in regard to the proposed amending measure.

Premier Asquith lifted a corner of the veil, but though Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, admitted that the premier's words were conciliatory, he hastened to add that Mr. Asquith had not told them anything. To discuss the third reading under the circumstances, would, he said, be futile and ridiculous.

End of Act Not Play.

He added:

"Let the curtain ring down on this contemptible farce. It is only the end of an act and not of the play. The government can carry the bill through parliament, but the concluding act of the drama will be in the country, where an appeal to the people will not end in a farce."

Mr. Law then remarked that when the government was unable to obtain a seat in parliament for a member of the cabinet, meaning Mr. Masterman, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, an appeal to the country evidently was not far off.

In a brief speech Premier Asquith defended the government against the charge of ignoring the rights of the minority and explained that he was introducing an amending bill not because he thought that the Irish home rule measure was bad or imperfect, but because he was anxious for peace.

Members in Demonstration.

The vote was then taken, and the announcement of the figures brought out a great demonstration by the nationalists and the liberals. As one man they rose from their seats, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs.

On March 9 premier Asquith told the house of commons that before the bill became operative a poll would be taken of the parliamentary electors of each county of Ulster to decide whether those counties should be excluded from the provisions of the Irish home rule bill for a period of six years from the first meeting of the new Irish parliament. If the majority of the voters were in favor of the scheme the county would automatically be excluded for the prescribed period.

Slate Roofing

I have unloaded a car of the best quality of Bangor sea green slate at the Raymond coal yards. If you are building or roofing it will pay you to put on slate as it will last as long as the building stands at a trifle more than a shingle roof and will be a safeguard against fire. Ask your insurance agent about it. It will be pleased to quote prices. Telephone call 14440.

Mrs. Emelie Bott, 811 College avenue, Dixon, Ill., says. "We recommend Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly now we did some years ago when we first gave gave a statement in their praise. I was rheumatic and most of the pain was through my kidneys. At night I didn't sleep well and in the morning was all tired out. I was nervous and dizzy and my kidneys were out of order. I tried different remedies but was not helped until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Leake Brothers company Drug Store. They made me strong and well."
